TRANSVAAL NEWS

Is Being Suppressed and Colored By the British News Censors.

The Beer Attack on Ladysmith Wednesday the 15th is Still Left in the Dark // The Tremendous Battles and British Victories on the 15th and 16th Were Inventions // All News Going to Other European Governments is Cut off From the Public By Diplomatic Arrangement.

By Associated Press to the Journal.
LONDON, Nov. 21.—The latest distinct news from Ladysmith is dated 16 and 17 and it strangely conflicted with reiterated reports of "tremendous battles and a great British victory" on Wednesday and Thursday.

Neither message mentioned any great fights or Boer defeats. On the contrary, both state that beyond a false alarm Tuesday evening and a little increased shelling Thursday and Friday, causing little damage, everything was perfectly quiet.

Nevertheless the dispatches from Estcourt today enlarge on the reported battles and insist that the Boers received a more terrible lesson Wednesday than any previous fight.

Large numbers of dead and wounded are said to have been left on the field and a number of prisoners captured. The British losses are reported as trivial.

Tuesday Morning News.
LONDON, Nov. 21, 5 a. m.—The reports of heavy fighting at Ladysmith last Wednesday have not been confirmed. On the contrary, the most reliable advices from Estcourt indicate that there was nothing more than a desultory cannonade.

Probably the rumor of a serious engagement grew out of the fact that the Boers threw a few harmless shells late Tuesday night, leading to the supposition that an attack was imminent. Nothing, however, happened Wednesday.

Beyond the fact that the Boers are daily receiving fresh reinforcements and supplies, there is practically nothing new from the front.

The Boer invasion of Cape Colony continues steadily and rapidly. There are 1300 Boers at Colesburg, and news has reached East London that Ladygray, near Alwal North, has been deserted by the British and now is in the hands of the enemy.

A Pretoria dispatch announces the arrival there, among the British prisoners, of Major Haldane, Lieutenant Brochie and Lieutenant Hallway. It also declares that the British Sunday

Boers at Estcourt.
DEMAN, Nov. 21.—Seven hundred Boers from Weenen took up a strong position on the highlands, thirteen miles south of Estcourt. Major Thorneycroft with a detachment of mounted infantry and the Estcourt carbineers engaged the Boers, of whom three were killed, including the commandant. The Boers then withdrew. The main Boer force south of Estcourt is reported to have retired.

PATRIMON, Nov. 21.—Vice-President Hobart died at 8:30 a. m. The Vice-President had been failing since yesterday afternoon. Soon after midnight he became unconscious and this morning he had an attack of angina pectoris, from which he never rallied. Before Hobart became unconscious he was able to converse with Mrs. Hobart about his private affairs. He was very patient and showed remarkable will power to the last. Among the first to send words of sympathy and condolence to Mrs. Hobart were President McKinley and Mrs. McKinley. Mrs. Hobart bears up well under the great bereavement. CAMPAIGN SHIBBOLETH

Adopted By the National Democratic Committee Instead of 16 to 1

By Associated Press to the Journal.
CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—The meeting of the Democratic national executive committee was again called to order this morning by Chairman Jones. All members were present. Little remained to be done, and it was the expectation that an early and final adjournment would be had. Chairman Johnson of the ways and means committee, reported on national work, as regards the campaign fund, and showed that $175,000 had been subscribed, and $147,000 collected. The first button of the campaign for 1900 was passed among the members and favorably commented on. It bore the words: "No foreign alliance; no trusts; no imperialism for United States."

The entire matter of the place and date of the national committee meeting was placed in the hands of Chairman Jones, who will issue the call. Some date in January was favored with Washington as the place of meeting.
